BRAVECTO Chews for Dogs. The most commonly reported adverse reactions include vomiting, decreased appetite, diarrhea, urinary incontinence, and lethargy. BRAVECTO Chews have not been shown to be effective for 12 weeks' duration in puppies less than 6 months of age. BRAVECTO Chews are not effective against bone-tissue ticks beyond 8 weeks of dosing. Fluralaner is a member of the isoxanzoline class. This class has been associated with neurologic adverse reactions including tremors, ataxia, and seizures. Seizures have been reported in dogs receiving isoxanzoline class drugs, with or without a history of seizures. Use with caution in dogs with a history of seizures or neurologic disorders. For complete product information refer to the product insert.

SENTINEL® SPECTRUM® Chews (milbemycin oxime, praziquantel, fenbendazole). Dogs should be tested for heartworm prior to use.
